

A Strategic Social Media Agency That Puts You At The Heart of The Conversation

Social Media Marketing can be a goldmine for small business. It's never been easier to reach your perfect customer and get your products and services in front of them.

At the same time... other marketing channels are saturated, and there's more competition around than ever before. To stay in the game, you need to be part of the Social conversation.

If you're not sorted with Social, you're leaving money on the table. And if you're doing Social badly, you're losing money!

Here's Why Social Media Is So Important for Your Business:

- Done right, it's the cheapest way to acquire new customers. Sites like Facebook and Twitter are virtual goldmines. It's now so easy to reach your ideal customer and get your offer in front of exactly the people who want to buy it.
- Today, consumers expect relationships with the companies they buy from. They like to "check you out" beforehand. Honest interaction with customers through Social Media is one of the best ways to build trust and credibility around your brand.
- Social Media Marketing is new. Some companies still don't even use it, or are just fumbling around in the dark. If you move now and really get on top of your social media, you have a huge advantage over the competition.

You know you need to use it. But where do you even begin?

Social Media is a strange new world, and the old rules of marketing hardly even apply.

Here's Why it's so Tough to do Social on Your Own

- If you don't know what you're doing, it's easy to get it wrong. Everything "sticks" online. You can't fully control the online conversation, and a badly managed campaign does more harm than good.
- The rules keep changing. The technology evolves, and new platforms come and go. Today's "best" marketing strategy is tomorrow's dud. Staying on top of social marketing methods is a full-time job.

- It takes serious strategic planning. Companies that blindly churn out fan pages, posts and tweets waste huge amounts of time and cash. Don't want to throw money down the drain - you need to spend your marketing budget on the core tasks that generate profits.

A Social Media Strategy That Works

The Social Media Company can design and execute your whole social media campaign from start to finish. You can think of us as a bolt-on marketing team. We'll grow your social presence and pull in new customers, making it easy for you to focus on your core business.

Here's what we can do for you:

- Expand Your Digital Reach. We get you new customers as cheaply as possible. Our social campaigns connect you directly with your ideal 'warm' prospects – users that are laser-targeted and ripe for your product or service.

Create Engagement Between Your Business and Your Customers. We'll help you engage with users directly. We strengthen your relationships with your current customers and keep them loyal to you, and we pull new, interested prospects into the conversation.

- Reel in Masses of New Followers and Fans. Our user acquisition strategy attracts Facebook fans and Twitter followers who want to connect with your business. We'll keep their eyes on your business with engaging content, steadily warming them up until they're ready to buy.
- Virally Market Your Business and Message. We create content for you that people like and share with their friends... who then like and share it with theirs. Word spreads, and you get seen by the people who want what you're selling.
- Brand Positioning. We put you where you need to be in the eye of your customer. Social Media is ideal for brand positioning, and we tailor our strategy to project the image that works best for you.
